Your Character, Opportunities and Natural Talents & Abilities

Following text describes who "you are" in contrast to the Expression--"you must be."

The Life Path 7: Analysis, Understanding

You are the scientific and thinking type. You have an observing nature and an analytical mind. It is not natural for you to accept things at their face value for you have a natural ability to relate facts, put two and two together, to size up situations and conditions from a technical and scientific standpoint. This is part of your financial success and gives you unusual opportunity if you use it well.

You have a high type of mind, combined with an intuitive feeling and an ability to understand the hidden and non-apparent facts, making you a developer, discoverer, inventor, and specialist. Knowledge is power in your life, and the more you know, the farther you will go.

You are naturally reserved, thoughtful, silent, and selective, and while you like people and like to be with them, you do not care for the common crowd and select your friends and environment with respect for dignity and pride.

However, when you are on your own ground and feel familiar and at home, you can talk well and interestingly. You have an inner magnetism which is an inspiration to others and a drawing card, both in business and friendship.

You must learn the peace of mind that comes with knowing self. You have a good mind and a fine intuition. You must study and contemplate, learn not to judge from appearances. Your life should be devoted to analyzing the world about you, learning to trust your intuition, developing until you reach the highest levels of wisdom. You must not emphasize material things in your life, but rather must become aware of the nonmaterial forces. You must be able to spend time by yourself without feeling isolated. You must learn to wait for opportunities which work to your advantage rather than actively seeking opportunities. Amid the hurly-burly of the world, your development depends on your ability to retire into yourself to find faith and peace.

You are not a truly adaptable person and are averse to being asked questions outright, although you ask many and demand proof, making you seem to be a doubter, or cold and hard. This side of your character can make you difficult to understand and you may hardly understand yourself at times, but when you take time to listen to your inner guidance, you have nothing to fear at any time.

You often need to be alone, to get close to nature, to think and read, for you gain your composure in this way and discover your true self, which makes you a most attractive and successful character. You are something of the stoic too, for too much emotion strips you of your power.

When you can get in touch with the satisfaction of working as a teacher, counselor, researcher, or at any other job which calls on intuition, mind and spiritual awareness without stressing material benefits; you can find much in the way of satisfaction.

Too often you struggle against the very experiences which will make your life work. You may not like being by yourself. You may want to enjoy good company and material pleasure. You must become aware of the excitements of the spiritual forces which can be used for your advantage.

Once on track, your understandings and perceptions will provide ample, though "different", pleasures. You can then progress toward ultimate wisdom and faith—the products of your growth and development.

Many times during your lifetime you will have to depend entirely upon your own ability and soul force; but just have confidence in your inner magnetism, your clear thinking mind, your technical and mathematical ability, and you will be called from the background into the luck you deserve.

Negative Expression: When negative you become highly introspective and self-centered that makes you a virtual recluse. Your lack of contact with others will make it difficult for you to grow and develop. Finding the path too difficult, you will try to ignore own character and live in the material world without tuning in to your inner resources—finding that little works for you and that you are beset with problems on all sides. Only if you can move onto your track will the life begin to have some meaning for you.

Your Current Challenge 3

Applicable till the end of life

Deep in your nature there is a fine imagination, the gift of words, speech, and an artistic talent. However there is also a barrier against the full expression of these qualities is also present. This may be due to a repression through others or to the fear of appearing too forward. It may be a repression within the self.

You seem to be your own worst critic. Each time you want to make an impression, you doubt yourself beforehand, and criticize yourself ruthlessly afterward. As a result, you tend to play it safe by staying on the surface, indulging in superficialities. You rarely express what goes on deep inside of you. Instead you cover up your feelings with humor or casual remarks. You often feel alone and lonely. Your personal inclination is for self-effacement and you have an aversion to society and the lighter side of life. Your fear of social interaction causes you to strain conversation by making too many jokes and forced joviality.

Obstacles in the way of expression have been allowed to stunt its growth. You are burying your talents in a napkin. You must force yourself into the cultivation of talents in music, art, acting, dancing, clothing, social contacts etc. Else, occasions will arise when care of the personal appearance will turn the scales against you. Your lack of eloquence will make you unable to put over your proposition. And your inability to dance, sing and play or act will make you lose the opportunity of the moment.

It may help you to find a creative outlet for your imagination—possibly through writing, painting, singing or dance. It can result in you becoming a great actor, cine artist, author, painter, architect or even designer. (Many artists and professionals have the Challenge 3. And sometimes it is late in life before the full measure of the talent is brought out.)

At the bottom of the challenge is an effort to bring out your true self. You will learn to truly value your own creative talents above anyone else's judgments. Thus you become a whole human being, independent and free of the need to conform to others.

In seeking romance and popularity, hurtful words, spoken impulsively, may bring loss of friends and the admiration so greatly desired. Sometimes this is due to a strong dislike of personal criticism and because there is a deep feeling of personal importance.

Remedy—Stop being such a mouse and become more of a butterfly. No matter how old you are, learn to do some of the things that give you a good time. Take up dancing, singing, fencing or public speaking-and watch yourself blossom out into a new plant.

Do not bury your talents. Bring them out and learn the value of constructive speaking. Learn to be a real friend, interested in others as much as in the self.

OR

Take life rather more seriously and stop wasting so much time in frivolity. Chatter less and avoid gossip altogether. Don't spend all your money on clothes and ornaments.

Consciously ask the following questions to yourself everyday and then take appropriate inspired actions.

- Am I a recluse or a fly-by-night?
- Am I unduly extravagant?
- Am I moody and cranky?
- Am I a waster of words or do I eschew them altogether?

The Road Ahead—Timing the Future

Fourth Pinnacle 4: Limitation, Order, and Service

Influences emphasize:

- Practical, realistic activities and solutions
- Order, system, organization.
- Need for conscientious, dependable responses.
- Need for hard work, determined effort, constant application.
- Slowly developing opportunities and activities.
- Any desire to retire or slow down is not likely to be fulfilled.
- There's likely to be little leisure and feelings of economic limitation.
- Responsibilities and accomplishments will be based on your ability to develop the talents required by the general influences.

Congratulation you have arrived at the winter of life, so-called old age. Now is the time to work for the human and spiritual welfare of mankind. From now on you have many opportunities for a successful use of the experiences of the past.

During this phase, there may be feelings of economic limitation. The responsibilities and accomplishments will be based on your ability to develop the talents required by the general influences.

You will have the responsibility of family and in-laws that you must accept as your Dharma. You must get down to work, manage and organize for definite results.

In fact this may just be a welcome period and a chance to put into form the ideas and plans dreamed of for many years. You must strive to bring order, system, application, practical thought, and endeavor during this period. You have an opportunity to be the builder, serious and desirous of gaining results of a concrete nature. Learn to manage and build through placing facts and ideas in their proper order for definite results.

You will be rewarded through conscious application and efforts to get tangible results and being persistent till the job is accomplished.

---

This is a period of hard work and many rewards. You have the opportunity to build a foundation that will last. Your abilities as an organizer, manager, or simply the rock of any institution are greatly increased. You are dependable and reliable. Your ability to fulfill responsibilities is likewise enhanced.

As a result of your industry and perseverance, success is well within your reach. It is a step-by-step process in which you build something by small bricks laid one after another.

Your life is preoccupied with details and responsibilities that must be taken care of. You have set in motion projects that are demanding your constant attention. While there are many rewards, there are also many frustrations. Your sense of your own limits and the consuming nature of details may at times seem overwhelming.

The need for efficiency, orderliness, and methodical systems limit your creativity. You must remember that things that last require slow growth. You may mistakenly believe that your progress should be faster, or happen with greater ease.

Your challenge is to be flexible and adaptable. Learn to play more and allow yourself to be more spontaneous. You will find yourself caring for others in a very material way. Family and in-laws can be burdensome, since you are seen as the cornerstone of the foundation.

This may be the first time during the life that you are experiencing the opportunity to organize, build, work, and get results in a serious and worthwhile manner. However, if you haven't grown in maturity and attitude of mind during last decade, you may find this period very difficult or a period of economic endeavor. In that case, it is crucial now that you must be willing to face the practical facts of life, else you will find that economic management cannot be escaped.

In my experience, even if you focus on developing just a hobby there is an opportunity to accomplish a fine work during this remaining part of your life.

13/4 Karmic Debt:

There's likely to be an excessively heavy work load or a restrictive type of work, either presenting substantial impediments so that you feel uncomfortably boxed in. Any tendency to be rigid, obstinate or dogmatic will only increase the problems. Often, the nature of the work producing the obstruction can be changed if you are capable of analyzing the situation objectively.

During this period you will need to work very hard to accomplish any task. Obstacles stand in your way, and must be overcome time and again. You may often feel burdened and frustrated by the seeming futility of your efforts. There may be a desire to surrender to the difficulties and simply give up on the goals, believing it was impossible to attain in the first place.

You may fall to laziness and negativity. But efforts are not futile, and success is well within reach. You simply must work hard, and persevere in order to reach the goal.

Remedies: Historically many Super Successful people in all walk of life; including business, art, and sports have faced this Karmic Debt period and overcome the period successfully by taking following actions:

- The key to success during this period is FOCUS. Very often, you may not concentrate or direct your energies in one specific direction, or on a single task, but scatter your energies over many projects and jobs, none of which amount to very much.
- Most importantly, stop focusing on self and start including people from your life and community in your life agenda. When you start taking actions for the betterment of others in your life; you will experience Super Success.
- Avoid the temptations to take shortcuts for quick success. It would prove futile--causing regret and the desire to give up. The result would be a poor self-image, and the belief that you are incapable of amounting to very much.
- Order is essential to success. In order to focus, you must maintain order in your life.
- Maintain a schedule, keep appointments, and follow through.
- Keep your environment neat and under control, and
- Avoid procrastination consciously.
- When you sustain a steady and consistent effort, you will realize much reward.

Meaning of absence of ‘number 3 vibration’ in your name: Karmic Lesson 3

Difficulties with expression and problems in social encounters will play an important part in your life. Usually, you will lack confidence and rarely feel comfortable enough to express your feelings. The fanciful ideas, sentimental speech, romance, and flights into imagination are not natural tendencies in you. You tend to be withdrawn or uncomfortable in social situations and have difficulty promoting self.

Your feelings of inferiority may project to others as a defeatist attitude. Unless you gain confidence in self and improve your expressive abilities, you will find these negative traits blocking your growth.

You do not lack in confidence or verbal ability, but the manner of expression —aggressive, over-dramatic or insensitive—prove a stumbling block. You may well express your delight in the joy of living in a manner that is offensive—sometimes in a manner that puts pressure on others.

There is a psychological slump in the mind which is often conveyed to the body. The faulty body posture indicates the avoidance of self-expression. You may be round-shouldered, through a desire to enclose yourself and seek protection from the gaze of the world.

Life will force you into situations where you will be in need of the dramatic and expressional quality. Lacking the ability to advertise and sell, you will be obliged to do both. You will constantly under-sell yourself and wear an apologetic air—which will invariably defeat you.

You seek to establish order, system, and the practical in work and living conditions. You expect faith and loyalty to be respected and laws to be fulfilled.

The ability to debate well is one of the key assets when there is sure knowledge, but you can also be argumentative or go from point to point to prove or disprove the question under discussion until you are satisfied. This may appear to be stubbornness and opposition to others.

You do not like sudden changes. You desire to be given time to plan, build, and construct according to pattern and the established order of things.

You love the family and the well-established home and traditions. At the same time you will find many family and in-law problems to be worked out. A dominant member in your life may bring a degree of repression. However, you need to guard against being dominant yourself in opinions and ideas.

8 on Mental Plane – You are a natural executive, a good business person, very ambitious mentally for power and position. You can be very philosophical and belong to societies and groups. You do have a hidden pride. You like to accomplish big things and to be recognized for what has been done.

You have a fine character, excellent mental qualities, and good judgment. You have an executive ability, talent for organization and supervision of large undertakings. The ability to weigh and balance for right action and performance rewards you with recognition, authority, leadership, and association with the important people of the world.

With a natural ability to judge, to estimate the strength or weakness of character in others, to command obedience and respect adds to its position and usefulness—you are an efficiency expert and a firm disciplinarian. You inwardly demand the same strength from self.

You are always active, strenuous, never satisfied, and constantly reaching out for better results and greater attainment. You may seem forceful, overwhelming, and dominant to others.

Life is never easy for you as you are always on the wheel of attainment. As a companion or sweetheart you have little time for dreaming, sentimentality or romance, even when deeply in love, as there is always some task or plan which demands your attention.

You attract money and deal with finances; since you have many expenses, you do not always gain the full reward for your efforts, more especially so if you make money your goal in life. Remember that 'Money' is the reward when you work for a cause or purpose that represents the good of many people. As a counselor you can be very successful. You expect to be the authority and do not take orders unless you respect the source of the authority.

3 on Emotional Plane – You are very imaginative and personal both in love affairs and work. You want admiration and to be popular. You ponder over things for long time and then act impulsively. A fine tenacity and endless application will be seen when you are in a profession that gives an outlet for the artistic and imaginative feeling and thinking. Otherwise, you could be judged as careless or indolent.

The gift of words is an asset, even though at times too much talk scatters the strength and sidetracks opportunity. However, this talent should be cultivated for added opportunity.

The ability to make others happy and to express joy and goodwill are a part your stock in trade. Love affairs bring many experiences, now and then a jolt, because of too strong a desire for appreciation and admiration. You do not like to be alone or live alone because of a companionable nature, but can learn to do so if you are deeply hurt or unhappy.

You may have pre-sentiments or natural psychic prophecy. A love of pleasure and fun characterizes your nature, but this should not be the real aim of life. The creative talent you possess should be used to further improve and strengthen the good qualities in your life.

9 on Intuitive Plane – You are extremely impressionable and idealistic—capable of bringing down unusual ideas from on High. This inspiration can influence many people. You are inclined to dwell in the abstract, even be vague and indefinite. You may be impractical and can go around in a daze, dreaming and not doing.

You have great talent and can accomplish fine work in any field of endeavor, although you are fundamentally the dramatist--guided and influenced by an intuitive relationship to the Universal mind. You express compassion, tolerance, good will, and generosity. Your manner is independent although charitable. You like to take part in philanthropic activities for the general public welfare.

It may react in a cold and indifferent manner when appealed to by others for personal reasons. The abstract side of your nature makes you a dreamer and a great actor on the stage of life, but difficult to understand, as you do not listen to reason, you may promise and then forget.

Being impressionable and dreaming of big, broad accomplishments, you can be led away by others, although you have excellent business ability when your talents are directed and put to good use.

- Spend money carefully. Money comes to you easily and from many sources, but it also goes out easily for objects of decoration and comforts, which creates a financial imbalance. Save money for your future.
- Shun overeating and the use of fats and hot spices. Jupiter, the Lord of number 3 people, rules over the liver. Since you work with the energy of liver, you should avoid foods that are hard on it. A damaged liver is unable to metabolize proteins properly and break down the amino acids produced in the body from eating animal-based foods. Avoid red meat, such as beef and bison. As well, you should eliminate or limit the eggs and dairy products you eat.
- Drinking, smoking, and many sex partners can damage liver quickly. High-Sodium Foods
- Salt contains sodium, which is not processed completely by a damaged liver. Canned foods, including soups, meats or vegetables, are high in salt and sugar, which cause abdominal swelling and fluid retention.
- Use garlic, pepper or spices to flavor foods instead of salt.
- Avoid sugary foods such as candy, ice cream and cake and salty foods like potato chips, which are simple carbohydrates with high levels of sugar and sodium, respectively.
- Eat foods with natural sugars and fibrous carbs, such as strawberries, oranges or apples, to avoid unhealthy levels of sugar and sodium in your liver.
- Chronic alcoholism contributes to the onset of liver damage because it inhibits proper absorption of nutrients, forcing the liver to become toxic. Avoid drinking beer, wine or champagne as well as any form of liquor and even cough syrup.
- Regular use of fenugreek seeds, anise seeds, coconut powder, almonds, black pepper, and honey with a pinch of saffron can be helpful.
- Include milk, cheese and yogurt. Protein is important in overall nutrition, so opt for lean meats from poultry and non-meat protein sources such as beans and nuts. You may also consider trying plant-based products such as soy milk.
- Eat Generous Amounts of Liver-Supporting Vegetables, Herbs & Spices: garlic, onions, broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, collard greens, kale & brussel sprouts. And when you eat them, be sure

Health and Diseases: You are susceptible to the following problems related to wind or air (vata dosha):

- Frail nerves. According to Ayurveda, the nervous system is related to the humor of wind, the air element. Nerve function is related to the principle of activity and movement; the humor of wind is the only active principle out of the three body humors (bile and mucus are immobile). A massage with oil containing fenugreek seeds that have been cooked in a little vinegar can be very helpful for this condition. Sesame oil produces the greatest benefit.
- Skin problems. As a result of disturbance in the humor of wind (vayu), the body feels dry. This dryness creates skin problems of all kind.

- The use of gram flour (chickpea flour) in bread, and the ingestion of carrots or carrot juice, can help cure skin diseases.
- Worrying and uneasiness of mind. Meditation, breathing exercises, deep and slow breathing, morning and evening walks along the side of a flowing river, reading scriptures, chanting the mantra, and the singing hymns, bhajans, can help.

- Arthritis. This is another disease created by the aggravated humor of wind. A controlled, gas-free diet, along with regular massage done with Mahanarayan oil or Wintergreen oil (to which eucalyptus oil and mint oils have been mixed in equal proportions) can help.
- Also, swallowing small, round balls of beeswax (the size of a garbanzo bean) for forty consecutive days at the beginning of the winter season is very beneficial.

Future 2016

(Wait, Cooperate and Form Association)

This year you are waiting, perfecting, reflecting and keeping quiet, your tides are "out". Things may be moving toward you just the same, but the accumulation is for the future and not for immediate use.

This year the seeds you planted in the last year will germinate. This is a time not so much for action as for attraction. Things will come to you if you are quiet and receptive. You are ready for accumulation. Keep an open mind. Study all you can and acquire new information on the subject which interests you the most.

The colors for this year to help you "win" are Gold, Salmon, Garnet, Prune, and Cinnamon.

Gold	Salmon	Garnet	Prune	Cinnamon
Hex: #FFDF00	hex: #FF8080.	Hex: #85274e	hex:#701c1c	Hex: #D2691E
RGB(255,223,0)	RGB: 255,128; 128	RGB: 133, 39, 78	RGB: 112, 28, 28	RGB:210, 105, 30

Look underneath the surface to make sure your roots are growing and that all arrangements are accurate and carefully understood; this is very important during the early part of the year.

This is a year of partnership and cooperation. Plan to work with others instead of trying to go it alone. Keep calm and cool and pleasant. Strengthen your friendships. Keep your goal in mind and collect things that will help you to reach it.

New opportunities and privileges will drop into your lap if you don't make too much effort to seek them. Be patient. Don't expect to see any results from last year's planting. Fertilize the soil and wait for things to grow below the surface. Don't be sensitive. Do the small things. WAIT. Daily meditation for 30-45 minutes in the early morning on empty stomach will certainly help in calming your mind and attracting the right opportunities.

Between January this year and January next year, your success and happiness depend to a great extent upon how much tact, diplomacy, and cooperation you use in dealing with others, especially when things are not running smoothly.

Last year you were required to be determined and to take the initiative. This year results are gained through "sharing" and willingness to wait for development.

There is advancement and progress in the year; but many plans of last year cannot come to a fulfillment without further time to mature.

Time, patience and cooperation are the keynotes to this year's experiences. You may experience periods of delay, for results cannot come to the surface all at once. You must understand this and be content to grow quietly; for any attempt to force conditions in a dominant and aggressive way is apt to bring even further delay or to result in disharmony and broken partnerships.

If you try 'too hard' you may become confused and cause trouble in associations, both at home and in business. Instead, cooperate with circumstances and try for that arrangement which will bring "peace" for yourself and others. In this way you can win what you could not force, bringing about results beyond your expectation.

Future 2017

Expand personal ideas of creativity and enjoy life with optimism but with control

This year you are active, seeking, expressing and achieving. Things are moving with and for you. You can see the results of your activities and may expect responses to your efforts.

This is the year for you to cultivate the society of your old friends and make new ones. Plan to do a lot of entertaining and accept invitations. The conditions around you are cheerful and optimistic. Pleasure, travel, active social life, and entertainment will keep you busy.

The colors for this year to help you "win" are Rose, Ruby, Amber, and Russet.

This year you will not be overburdened with responsibilities and may safely take some time off to enjoy yourself. Avoid scattering your energies and undertake too many things at a time. Be careful to finish one thing before starting another. Be happy, but don't give yourself over to frivolity.

You may hold fast to a purpose and still not be overshadowed by gloom. Some of the ideas and projects that were started or implemented two years ago would begin to show some results. Enjoy them. Put your best foot forward and do everything possible to improve yourself.

There is a "quickening" force operating in your affairs and now is the time to make use of the creative, inspirational, and imaginative ideas and ideals which flood your heart. Fasten on to the dreams and visions which flash through your mind from time to time this year. In business, as well as friendship, inspiration and imagination can mean improved finances and happier associations.

If you just drift along, want everything without effort, and allow yourself to be disturbed emotionally about what others do, this can be a wasted and an unhappy year.

On the other hand, when you make a real effort to express and carry out some of these ideas in a constructive manner, this can be one of the happiest years of your life.

Friends will be of importance and value. You must try to make new friends and to join with the old ones, especially those who are attempting to do creative and worthwhile things in the world. They will help you and you will be able to help them if you act in the friendly manner as this year requires.

During the first 5 months, friends may cause you some annoyance or emotional disturbances, but do not allow this to get under your skin; try to understand your emotions and the things others do.

Love affairs—own or those of friends and family—show a tendency to take on color and interest.

Practical results may not be apparent at first; they come more definitely later in the year and especially next year. Now, you should be busy developing the dream or inspiration, especially that which gives you a fuller self-expression.

This is your optimistic and cheerful year, and you can gain far better results through being joyful and happy. Consciously avoid worry or fretting about little things.

When inspired and in good cheer, money, opportunity, love, travel, pleasure, happiness, and popularity should be yours this year.

Avoid being an extravagant or wasting emotion, energy, or money. Do try to spread a little sunshine and faith wherever you go.

There is a personal opportunity through words, lectures, and writings expressed in a constructive manner. However, don't talk out of turn, as through talk, gossip, and careless speech, unhappy problems could develop.

During the early part of the year, make sure of all of your relationships and associations so as not to get on a detour. Even this creative year calls for good common sense. Talk your ideas over with others to help you find the way, but do not be talked out of them.

January 2017 (4 PM): Work hard and lay your foundation with optimism and creativity. Accept the help offered by friends (effect of outgoing 2 P. Y.)

Future 2018

Work hard, consolidate the details and lay the foundation for future rewards

This year things may be moving toward you just the same, but the accumulation is for the future and not for immediate use. You must wait, perfect, reflect and keep quiet.

This is a year to work. Avoid being too easy on yourself, or do too much loafing, else you will suffer in health and won't get much satisfaction out of your leisure. Between January of this year and January of next year, you must dig, prepare, cultivate and build if you want to have a real vacation next year. The plans and inspiration of last year must now be put into more concrete form.

Colors to help you "win" this year are Blue, Green, Emerald, Silver, and Coffee

Test everything for practicality and stability. Square up past mistakes and figure out how to avoid new ones. Work out the details of that project you have been turning over in your mind; strengthen your weak places. Put your affairs in perfect order. Look well to your health—especially in matters of diet. Be sane and rational in all things. KEEP BUSY.

During this year, you are likely to have very little time for personal pleasure. Circumstances from time to time will force you to look at things from a material point of view and to "stay on the job" whether you want to or not. By the time the year is over, you will definitely feel considerable satisfaction in your accomplishments.

If you manage well, face the facts and get down to business as the year requires, you can lay a foundation for security and lasting conditions in the future. Order, system, organization, management and application are important, and in matters pertaining to business, property, agreements, contracts, papers, or legal matters, details must be attended to with patience and honesty.

---

The practical side of the year may bring health and financial matters of your own or family, placing the responsibility upon your shoulders. You must attend to these things lovingly, and attempt to get orderly results this year so that you may have the freedom and fuller life which next year promises.

This is a time for buying, selling, trading and for all activities concerned with building homes, lives, and property, and doing things which give a practical foundation for the future.

This is a splendid time for you to make the effort to put your ideas into concrete form. However you must be thrifty, careful, economical, and efficient in doing this. There is little to be gained through trusting to luck this year.

At times finances may seem practical and slow, or expenses high, but through good common sense, you can meet all requirements and come out ahead.

Avoid being careless or evading the responsibility and work—you may regret it later. More than that; you could find the burden still present when next year comes.

January 2018 (5 PM): Look for opportunities carefully. Choose the right one and work hard to lay the foundation. Consciously avoid the tendency of neglecting duties for the sake of enjoyment and pleasures (impact of outgoing 3 PY).

Future 2019

Obstacles are removed; new opportunities bring important changes—time to initiate in new directions

- This year you are active, seeking, expressing and achieving. Things are moving with and for you. You can see the results of your activities and may expect responses to your efforts.
- This is a year of progress and freedom to go where you please. By all means, make sure that you go somewhere, for this year your opportunity will be found outside the ordinary routine. Let go of many old things and make room for new ones. Welcome new situations, places and people.
- The colors this year to help you "win" are Pink, Cherry, Wisteria, and Claret.
- Do a lot of advertising. If you have a business of your own, present it with a new angle. Don't let the prevailing atmosphere of change and variety make you restless. Instead take advantage of it to learn something new.
- Avoid scattering yourself and burn up your energies; let your adaptability keep the balance between concentration and explosion. Do a variety of things and make sure that each one of those is of use to you. GET OUT OF THE RUT.
- This year, the changing conditions and eventful happenings will add new life and color to your undertakings, forcing you into step with progress. After the work, application, and practical conditions of last year, the change, freedom from routine, and unexpectedness should be very agreeable to you.
- There is an element of uncertainty running through the year and you may experience a feeling of being unsettled from time to time. Yet on the whole the year affords you a splendid opportunity for advancement and progress.
- When you keep alert to what is going on in the world, and an open mind, you will find you are able to renew all your affairs, clearing up old conditions for more personal freedom and personal advancement.

- This year, you have a right to a fuller life than during the past four years. Without change there is no growth, but to "live" does not mean to sow wild oats (for example, having sex with multiple partners or do things that you will regret later). Instead, plan a definite goal for advancement and to be resourceful enough to make the adjustments which are necessary for improvement.
- You may feel restless, impatient with things which move along slowly; or experience resentment towards those who hold you down or bind you. Avoid taking in hurried actions for haste makes waste and could lead to deep regret later on in the cycle of life you are now passing through.
- Make every effort to open a channel for progress, but avoid quarreling or burning your bridges behind you. If you feel that progress can come only through breaking up old conditions, be sure you do this in a constructive way and do not jump impulsively from the frying pan into the fire.
- Think win-win. All changes should be to the advantage of others as well as yourself, if you wish to get the best out of the year. Break up some of the old routine and turn many of the details over to others, but with wisdom and discretion, for the eventfulness, excitable conditions, and your own inner unrest can make the year very active.
- The changes, new contacts, and new opportunities may confuse you, but accept them all in the spirit of progress and advancement. Live up to the "push" which life is exerting upon you.
- Get fun out of meeting conditions and show versatility of thought and resourcefulness in action. Travel, move, at least do something to freshen up the home, social, and business activities.

January 2019 (6 PM): Domestic life has changes. And new activities bring enjoyable experiences. Nevertheless, there is work to be done towards the responsibilities at home.

- A time to concentrate on the duties and responsibilities of domestic life.
  - Take care of needs of spouse, children, parents, possibly close friends.

Future 2020

Domestic duties; Love, Marriage and Home; and Service to Community

This is a year of waiting, perfecting, reflecting and keeping quiet. Things may be moving toward you just the same, but the accumulation is for the future and not for immediate use.

This year you have more responsibility than you had last year. You will be needed in many directions and will be called upon to make adjustments for those less able to do so than you are. Narrow yourself down a bit and plan to enjoy your home life.

Colors for this year to help you "win" are Orange, Heliotrope, Henna, and Scarlet.

You will be surrounded by love and friendliness and contentment—if you allow yourself to attract them. Be very thorough and conscientious about everything you do, finishing all you undertake.

It isn't a year for big accomplishment and things may seem to be at a standstill, but the universe is making many unseen adjustments in your own life.

What is yours shall see your face. A fine and friendly influence for marriage and all home conditions is present throughout the year.

This is your "duty" year. You have responsibilities to meet, obligations to pay up, and duty to accept, for service is the keynote to success and happiness this year. Unselfishness, truth, justice, charity, and humanity should be your motives in everything you do this year; it is unlikely that you can get satisfactory results any other way.

There is much you must harmonize too. Love, money, health, and friendship can depart suddenly if disharmony is allowed to persist. Love can come to you if you are generous and loving enough to receive it. Through expressing love and sympathy you can even gain financially during the year.

A strong desire to get settled may be in your mind—both in business and domestic affairs, and the end of the year should bring considerable satisfaction in this respect.

---

There is something to be "talked over," and it may be necessary for you to take advice from friends, relatives, or those in authority. When you are willing to make the adjustment and to consider the good of others as well as yourself, you would realize improvement in all the affairs of your life.

Keep your ideals high too, and try to avoid any feeling of resentment because of unfairness. When you give more generously than you receive, it brings the desired improvement and more settled conditions which the year holds out to you.

You may even have the opportunity to instill ideals into the hearts and minds of younger people, when you live true to those ideals yourself this year.

There is a "care" of some sort present. This may be due to family, relatives, business responsibility, or through matters of health, but money should come to meet these obligations if you accept them as a privilege and do not make them a burden.

Others may impose upon you or try to take advantage of your good nature; but even so, with effort and good business judgment, you can make fine progress.

Get settled in your business affairs for future improvements and bring about more satisfactory living conditions and domestic relationships. Love affairs may bring interest.

The action of the year is slow but it is only in this way that the ultimate good can be attained. This may seem to be more noticeable during the months of March, April, May and up to about June. But from then on, your plans and adjustments can be pushed forward.

During September, October, and November life may still bring much responsibility and need of helping others, but by October or November you should realize you have worked things out to a more definite conclusion; pointing towards more time to yourself next year.

January 2020 (7 PM): A time to sit down alone, concentrate quietly on the past, present and future of the family members and home and plan the activities. A sense of enjoyment and freedom may interfere (impact of outgoing 5 PY)

Tips for writing great reviews

Writing great reviews helps others discover the places that are just right for them. Here are a few tips:

- Be informative and insightful: Be specific and relevant to the place you’re reviewing, and describe what other visitors are likely to experience. Highlight what makes the place special, and try to share something novel and new. From signature dishes to secret sale racks, reviews should reveal the unique experiences that places offer.
- Keep it real: Be authentic. Review your own experience, and explain why you liked or disliked the place. Try to be as accurate as possible, and include both the positive and negative aspects of your visit.
- Be respectful: Not every experience with a place is going to be perfect. Sometimes you’ll want to share negative feedback. Even if you’re frustrated, make sure your criticism is constructive. Business owners often use feedback to improve their offerings.
- Reviews not General Commentary: At times certain locations may become the subject of larger public debate or conversation due to recent news coverage or current events. While we respect and value your opinion, Local Reviews are not meant for social or political commentary. We think there are other forums that are more suited to those kinds of conversations, like blogs or social networks. Please write about your firsthand experience with the place and not general commentary on the place in relation to recent news.
- Write with style: People will pay attention when you write thoughtful reviews. Keep them readable and avoid excessive capitalization or punctuation. Use good grammar, check your spelling, and avoid profanity.
Choose the right length - a paragraph is great. Be creative and have fun!
