Baby name Report does not include the Annual Forecast.)

July 21, 2016

Dear Parents

M: 9766032609 | parentsname@gmail.com

Thank you for trusting my wisdom in Numerology. Following report is based on the suggested FULL NAME and the birth details of your daughter provided by you. There is no need to change this name again.

Feel free to call me, if you need more clarification. (First consultation on Feb 26, 2016)

Key Points to Remember As Action Points

1. Ensure that you keep her engaged in educational and extra-curricular activities till she is 30 years old. Also teach her meditation once she is 3 year old. She could meditate for 3-5 minutes initially; add 1 min extra every year. The meditation time in minutes need not go beyond the age of the child. For example at 10 years age, 10 min. meditation is enough.
2. Baby will have very specific ideas about what is right and what is wrong. You must teach her that the life is an individual problem; and she must refrain from making rules for everyone.
3. A Diamond (1 carat) or White Saphaire of 3-4 carats worn as a pendant, with an open-back setting is lucky for your baby.
4. Wherever possible use the NEW FULL NAME with expanded initials—“baby’s Full Name” You could also write her name as “baby’s short name” when there is a space constraint.
5. Remember to write a generous review in Google and to refer my services to your friends. 😊😊

The impact and interpretation of “Baby’s full name as suggested”

*It is read as what you must do. It is never read as what you are. It’s like your Lifelong Goal.
All your actions will ultimately lead you fulfill this goal. Enjoy it and live up to it.*

You are destined by Life to play the role of "Peace-maker." Goodwill toward others is your magic power for success. You have fine powers of persuasion, diplomacy and cooperation, but if you wish to attract the good things life has in store for you—it must be carefully cultivated and brought to a high point of perfection along with your other characteristics.

In other words, you are one of Life's "trouble shooters" and will be called upon constantly to pour oil on troubled waters. You may not always want to do so, but you came into the world with this mission to fulfill, so it must be done, not only for the sake of success, but for your own peace and happiness. You have a fine power to influence people and it is a part of your mission as a peacemaker to encourage others to live by the higher principles of being.

When things are not moving along smoothly; try tact, diplomacy and courtesy; for arbitration is one of Your Tools of Trade.

Avoid falling into the struggle for existence. Bring others together diplomatically; soothe, comfort, counsel, and help people find peace, for this will give you great personal satisfaction and add to your commercial value. If at any time you find yourself living in inharmonious and unhappy surroundings, or there are jealousies and opposition in your home or business, you should make every effort to overcome this by being more cooperative and peaceful in your own actions; not weak or fearful, but willing to work for the good of your associates as much as for yourself.

Numerology & Success Principles—Research | Consultation | Teaching

Field of Opportunities: Partnerships are important to you. No matter how independent an executive you are in other ways, cooperation is essential to your success. This does not mean that you should depend upon others for your success, but through fraternities, associations, groups, and in your personal and home life, you will find "sharing" a means to your own attainment.

Mix with people who are working for the refinement of the masses and who express the cultural standards of living. You are sensitive and appreciate how others feel. Your understanding and persuasive manner gives you an ability to encourage and comfort others.

Your own home, personality, character, and way of doing things should represent beauty, art, and loveliness. People who are interested in religion, politics, banking, science, statistics, higher mechanics, are in your field of opportunity.

Lucky Colors: When seeking opportunity wear cinnamon, white, salmon, gold, or garnet.

HEART'S DESIRE 6—Your Secret Thoughts and Wishes

With the new name also comes the new way of being & new actions to take. The following section explains what you would like to 'be and do' in your life.

Deep down in your heart there is a fine sense of loyalty and a real desire to do good things in the world. You are deeply sympathetic and sense the needs of humanity.

You will always be somewhat of an idealist and much of your success, as well as many of your disappointments, will be the result of this quality. You are faithful to those you love, clinging to family standards and tradition, even to the point of sacrificing yourself for love, family, or some ideal of service.

You are firm in your ideas of right and wrong, developing these convictions more positively the older you grow. You are apt to be frank, even bluntly outspoken when your sense of fairness and justice have been violated, but you will fight just as hard for others as for yourself.

Numerology & Success Principles—Research | Consultation | Teaching

Your soul longs for beauty, harmony, and companionship, and when you follow your soul urge you are capable of living on a very high plane and inspiring others to do likewise. You should never permit life or experience to rob you of your ideals. Part of your work in the world is to help others, especially the young, to maintain ideals of love, beauty, and justice, and your whole life could be defeated if you allowed anything to darken your faith.

You are capable of a deep and lasting affection for those you love; but you want to be loved in return and you are not happy unless you have the full measure of love and appreciation which you believe is your due.

At times you are overgenerous and indulgent to the extent that you give more than you should, more than is good for the other fellow. Many of your troubles result from this. You may even blind yourself to the faults of family, children, or friends, and then suffer when you find they are only human after all. Still, this very quality is part of your charm and is the reason why others love you.

Keep a check on your kindness and do not give too much to one or two. It may not be right and end in unhappy experiences or lack of appreciation. Give some of your love to humanity and work for the good of the world as well as for those you personally love.

A home and marriage mean a great deal to you and you will make every effort to establish yourself securely in a home and maintain your own comfortable place. Still you are capable of renouncing love for service, because your ideals are so high. You belong to those who beautify life, and your environment should be both artistic and beautiful. You should also surround yourself with friends who are making the world a better place to live in. Children, animals and those who are helpless appeal to you, and you will be loved by them.

Now and then you can be just a little stubborn about what you want and so determined to carry out your own ideas and plans that you forget to consider the viewpoint of others. Not that you mean to be stubborn, but you sometimes insist that others shall do what you think best because you believe your way is best.

Your desire to help can be so strong that you almost smother those you love, who, in turn, are forced to free themselves to find their own good. Try to understand life a little more and realize that people differ in opinions. Learn to assist them to do what they want to do, not just what you think they should do; the more you do for others in a loving way the more popular you will be and the greater usefulness you will find.

Wear orange, henna, scarlet, heliotrope, or mustard in your accessories to attract friends.

Love Affairs: You are the idealist in love and romance. Very protective, even possessive, almost smothering the loved one with attention, gifts, and expressions of love, you seek to give the best life has to offer to the loved one, but demand the expression of love and approval in return. You must feel loved and appreciated. You enjoy sentiment and demand appreciation and admiration.

Maturity Number 8 with Strong dissimilar Energy:

- Security and protection for the later days of life are a much-desired and hoped-for way of living. Farseeing persons plan and prepare for this period during their lifetimes.
- If you are young, your interest lies more in what is going to happen right now or very soon.
- If you are in late thirties or early forties, you are apt to wonder from time to time if you can keep up with the pace of earning a living many years more.
- If you are in fifties or sixties and life has not been all that you had hoped for, the promise of opportunity, usefulness, and satisfaction for these later days is still present if you direct your affairs according to the “way” for the latter days of your life as explained below.

At maturity at the age of 32, a new sub-lesson is introduced—learning the satisfactions of the material world, and the power which comes with its mastery. Since the 8 energy has been an excluded factor in the life up to this time, it's likely that the problems and lessons of the material world have been of little consequence. You were probably well-provided for (possibly by others), or at least adequately provided for so that you had no need to struggle with material problems. At maturity, there's apt to be a shift in the life, bringing the problems of the material world to center stage.

This shift may be due to one of the following:

- Reevaluation of the vocation, possibly in comparison to others' achievements in the same or similar vocations, OR
- Desire to shift to a completely different vocation, possibly due to higher money, status, power possible in the new vocation, or desire for satisfaction above prestige, OR
- Awareness of approaching retirement and need to provide adequately, OR
- Economic changes which may affect financial responsibilities. At this time in the life, you are likely to face some decisions about your attitudes and actions in regard to the material world in order to achieve deeper satisfaction.

Your Character, Opportunities and Natural Talents & Abilities

Following text describes who "you are" in contrast to the Expression--"you must be."

The Life Path 6: Balance, Responsibility, Love

You are the humanitarian type and are capable of serving mankind and of doing worthwhile things in life. You are an idealist too, and have many strong opinions about what is right and wrong and cling tenaciously to your ideals of truth and justice.

You are generous, kind, and sympathetic and have a loving, appreciative nature; much of your success in life, both in business and marriage, will come through the kindly, helpful, and protective things you do for others.

Responsibility is the keynote to your activities, for your ability to do things in a big way and a natural tendency to serve and teach will keep you busy and help you attract money, love and admiration.

You must learn the deep pleasure of handling responsibility. You are born with the innate ability to give help and comfort whenever needed, to support those too weak to support their own lives. Others will quickly recognize these capabilities and come to you for help. You will find yourself responsible for far more than your fair share.

You must accept the responsibility and learn to serve family, relatives and friends. You must be willing to give out much in the way of friendship and love, and will receive much friendship and love in return. You must always be there to help, sometimes even to your own disadvantage. You may have to learn to distinguish between helping and interfering.

You will usually seek the closeness of marriage, although you may have to work at the balance needed in marriage far more than you might expect. Your ability to balance and harmonize may express in creative activities—art, music, writing—providing you with much pleasure.

Many will impose upon your good nature and take advantage of your generosity, even your family and loved ones; but as long as you do not become personal and resentful, but keep on serving humanity, you will always have money and opportunity in the world.

Sometimes you give too much and sacrifice yourself for others, going to extremes because you love to help; and this must be guarded against, for it may cause unnecessary loss and emotional unhappiness.

You usually accept responsibility so readily that advantage may be taken of you without your ever being aware of it. At some period in your life, you will probably get tired of the burden, may stop to clarify just how much responsibility you choose to assume.

When you examine his life situation, you will find that many do come to you because they are too weak to take care of themselves. At the same time, you will also find that some people who lean on you habitually—are capable of being responsible for their own lives. You will do well to weed out those who need him from those who don't. Part of the lesson of “responsibility” is clarifying when and where the sense of responsibility is to be used.

You are very exacting of yourself. Often you are willing to sacrifice yourself (or your families) for the welfare of others. You may have to learn to temper your dreams of perfection. Sometimes, you have to learn to express your own individuality despite the heavy burden of responsibility you carry.

You are fond of your home, family, and relatives, have an artistic nature, love beauty, harmony, flowers, music, and the luxuries and comforts of life.

You should establish an artistic and harmonious environment. You need the same love and sympathy for your best growth which you give to others, and a chance to live an idealistic life.

Numerology & Success Principles—Research | Consultation | Teaching

You are more controlled by your feelings than you care to acknowledge, so when you are not happy or appreciated you can become surprisingly stubborn, unreasonable, and unhappy and feel like giving everything up. And too, you can become dominant, exacting, and fussy. Don't be like that.

You are too fine a character. Keep on giving and helping others, but sensibly, for after all, you are the one who serves, com-forts, and teaches the race.

Key Characteristics

- You are a responsible person who is always there to pick up the burden.
- You are loving and appreciative. You are always ready to help.
- You are sympathetic, kind and generous with all in sharing your personal and material resources.
- You usually love children and make an excellent teacher.
- You are capable of rectifying and balancing situations.
- Others come to you when things are not in balance. One of the focuses of your life is usually family, relatives and friends. You are artistic and emotional and rarely too concerned with material needs.

Negative Expression: Though most of the time you have a positive outlook, sometimes you are overwhelmed by too many responsibilities, and become a near-slave or doormat for others. In such a case you will feel unhappy and think that this is your role in life.

Occasionally, you may confuse “responsibility” for a situation with “dominating a situation”. Occasionally you could be far too exacting (of yourself and others), extremely critical and fussy at the same time.

Rarely when you renounce responsibility, you will feel tense and uneasy, always realizing that you are not accepting the share that belongs to you. In that case, you may be laden with guilt and have difficulty continuing satisfactory relations with others.

Your Currunt Challenge 5

Applicable till 2045

Though you cling to old traditions, you do not like to be confined. You desire and need new contacts and new places from time to time. However the versatility, curiosity, love of change and variety can also become a problem. Many a times the desire for "freedom" to escape responsibility causes mistakes in selection of place and association.

Having a deep feeling for personal freedom you will express resentment and impatience when your desire to be elsewhere is thwarted. When the restlessness is allowed to become dominant, real satisfaction in accomplishment is never reached, especially if criticism and strong dislikes are allowed to grow.

When the roots of an accomplishment are constantly torn up, restlessness defeats the life. You could be in danger of becoming a rolling stone. Your desire to experience and enjoy life can overwhelm every other priority you have.

You must guard against overindulgence - and even dependence upon - alcohol, food, drugs, and sex. You must consciously work at establishing and maintaining long-lasting relationships. Be tolerant and understanding. You need to discipline your urge to change every situation that does not immediately suit you. Stick with projects, maintain your friendships, don't abandon people or situations the minute they become the slightest bit difficult.

You may have a fear of change and cannot let go of people and situations. This holds you in the past, restricting your growth. Learn to take prudent risks and be more adventurous.

Make use of the quick perceptions, the resourcefulness, and interest in life's many phases for success. This challenge becomes a fine asset when a place in the public is found and a work that allows for promotion, travel, publicity, and contact with crowds or large groups are undertaken.

This Challenge has a two-fold meaning; the first deals with sex and the senses--the misuse or abuse of the freedom in the 5: the second deals with Discard,--freedom from another angle--the freedom we give to things or people by letting go of them.

Numerology & Success Principles—Research | Consultation | Teaching

You either obey the law or disregard it; you may scale the heights or plumb the depths; you may progress in expansion or run around in circles. This is one of the most difficult Challenges, for here you must learn to understand when to change and to what.

A distinction must be made between the healthy type of restlessness that wants to progress, gain more knowledge and make more contacts and the type that flits from one thing to another from mere love of change and distraction-refusing to stabilize, burning all bridges behind him.

The pitfall on the sex--side is the result of the same seeking, eager quality--the urge to satisfy an impulse or ideal as soon as it arises--to seek an outlet as an experiment.

With the 5 vibration the senses are always uppermost; they want to leave nothing untried, drink, drugs, "whoopee" are so many experiences offered by life -everything must be tasted and judged.

Speed, impulse and curiosity all stand ready to overthrow the one with 5 on the Challenge.

Remedy--Restrain that impulse to try everything at least once. Don't be so eager to pass on to the next thing until you have satisfied the obligations of the thing in hand. Stay long enough in one place or at one job to know what there is in it. Don't cast aside your old friends or loves like so many worn-out shoes.

Questions you could ask consciously to yourself and take appropriate actions:

- Is my curiosity about life sound and healthy?
- Do I cling to old conditions when I should pass on to new?
- Do I try to hold my friends when they are ready to go?
- Do I rule my impulses or do they rule me?

The Road Ahead—Timing the Future

First Pinnacle 7: Analysis, Understanding

Influences emphasize:

- Study: Learning, investigating, gaming skills, often in scientific, technical, religious or metaphysical fields.
- Being alone: Usually more comfortable working alone. Marriage is likely to take much effort. May need the isolation to develop inner resources.
- Little interest in material matters: There is likely to be little concern with practical affairs. There may be difficulties because of lack of money or material benefits.

You may have difficulty getting the desired education because of parental pressures. You may be pressured into studies when you have little or no motivation because of your age. You experience repression during childhood due to lack of money for education, strict parents, poor health or lack of friends.

Learn to have faith in God and maintain poise under difficult financial situations. There is a quiet attraction for money throughout this period. This is a period of Soul development. Patience, care, and study help attract what is needed.

Make contact with those who are interested in the educational, scientific, and cultural phases of living. Educational studies, scientific interests, specialization of the talents for outstanding use and recognition must be cultivated. When knowledge, understanding, and training of the mind are attained, this period brings a fine reward and a power to attract all things including love. The period demands perfection and the best from you—sometimes making you proud, exclusive, and something of the separatist.

During this period very often you seem to care less for worldly activities. You prefer to study or investigate things in a specialized way, desire to be alone, and outgrow old associations.

Numerology & Success Principles—Research | Consultation | Teaching

When the requirement of period is misunderstood and refused to be communicated responsibly to others, it would cause problems in personal relationships. Negative states of mind may develop moods and complexes that defeat the understanding of life.

Often, during this period you are restless and the grass seems greener on the other side of the fence. These erratic and frequent changes may result in lack of accomplishment. Seek knowledge and education instead.

There can be no bluffing or subterfuge while working through this period as life demands truth and right living. You will have a way of finding things out about the self and others.

It is also not an easy period for marriage. Marriage partnerships are difficult as you can be cold, separate, and more interested in studies and work than in worldly activities.

(Note for Parents: Parents please see that the child has a special education. Also a careful diet and health matters are taken care of with more understanding rather than restrictive measures of discipline. You could also encourage the child to participate in “Landmark Forum” an educational program offered by Landmark Education.)

Your Peculiarities of Temperament and Aptitudes

The following text typify the peculiarities of your nature, the way you express the feelings and respond to circumstances in all social, business and domestic relationships.

3 on Physical Plane - You have the ability to demonstrate and express in an artistic manner on the material plane. You think and behave like an artist even in practical matters. You do not like to face the realities. You use imagination to make things go. Though talented and artistic in work you could be careless about order and system.

3 on Intuitive Plane – You have much artistic talent. You tend to color ideas with imagination and much personal feeling. Capable of inspiring others to higher interests and faith you are a fine speaker. You may be reserved in nature and not put self over without help from others.

You have a happy, inspirational, and loving temperament. You respond to circumstances, work and happenings in your life emotionally. Hard physical work of long duration is not natural for you.

A fine tenacity and endless application will be seen when you are in a profession that gives an outlet for the artistic and imaginative feeling and thinking. Otherwise, you could be judged as careless or indolent.

The gift of words is an asset, even though at times too much talk scatters the strength and sidetracks opportunity. However, this talent should be cultivated for added opportunity.

The ability to make others happy and to express joy and goodwill are a part your stock in trade. Love affairs bring many experiences, now and then a jolt, because of too strong a desire for appreciation and admiration. You do not like to be alone or live alone because of a companionable nature, but can learn to do so if you are deeply hurt or unhappy.

You may have pre-sentiments or natural psychic prophecy. A love of pleasure and fun characterizes your nature, but this should not be the real aim of life. The creative talent you possess should be used to further improve and strengthen the good qualities in your life.

8 on Mental Plane – You are a natural executive, a good business person, very ambitious mentally for power and position. You can be very philosophical and belong to societies and groups. You do have a hidden pride. You like to accomplish big things and to be recognized for what has been done.

You have a fine character, excellent mental qualities, and good judgment. You have an executive ability, talent for organization and supervision of large undertakings. The ability to weigh and balance for right action and performance rewards you with recognition, authority, leadership, and association with the important people of the world.

With a natural ability to judge, to estimate the strength or weakness of character in others, to command obedience and respect adds to its position and usefulness—you are an efficiency expert and a firm disciplinarian. You inwardly demand the same strength from self.

You are always active, strenuous, never satisfied, and constantly reaching out for better results and greater attainment. You may seem forceful, overwhelming, and dominant to others.

Life is never easy for you as you are always on the wheel of attainment. As a companion or sweetheart you have little time for dreaming, sentimentality or romance, even when deeply in love, as there is always some task or plan which demands your attention.

You attract money and deal with finances; since you have many expenses, you do not always gain the full reward for your efforts, more especially so if you make money your goal in life. Remember that 'Money' is the reward when you work for a cause or purpose that represents the good of many people. As a counselor you can be very successful. You expect to be the authority and do not take orders unless you respect the source of the authority.

6 on Emotional Plane – You are honest and truthful. You can express beauty, harmony, and music. Also provide helpful service. You feel things deeply and keep worrying over someone who does not do the right thing. You can make others unhappy by too much discipline, or by demanding that others live up to your ideals. You respond to admiration and appreciation.

You are a natural teacher, nurse, physician and humanitarian. You have an artistic nature with deep appreciation of beauty, harmony, music, color and the luxurious. Service to mankind is your keynote, in a personal way or in the world of welfare and human rights.

You are always called upon to serve in some capacity, which you do willingly, but you will be aware of the service you are giving, expecting appreciation, compensation, and recognition for the service rendered.

You are capable of sacrificing for a cause or ideal and can be greatly imposed upon because of a warmhearted, high sense of justice, honesty and willingness to fight for the rights of others. Having high ideals, you can be very demanding, even dominant, exacting, and a firm disciplinarian, but often fail to get the love, approval and appreciation you so deeply desire because of your insistence that others live up to your demands and ways of thinking and believing.

There is a love of the home, family, garden, animals, and comfortable living. You never outgrow the desire for love, affection and approval, even in the latter days of life.

- Practice pranayama (breath control techniques), take regular morning walks, and massage your bodies three to four times a week.
- Arrange your life, organize your schedules, and do not spend too much time doing water sports in places of amusement. You should save money for your hard times.

Weak Periods: April, October, and November are the weak periods for you. Also, whenever Venus is retrograde, you will have problems with your health, receive bad news, and can experience mental problems or obstacles in your work. You can feel a lack of courage, inspiration, steadiness, and patience. You become proud, discourteous, obstinate, argumentative, jealous, and indecisive. Favourable Colours: White is the best colour for you as it is the colour of your ruling planet, Venus. Light blue, pink, and chrome yellow are also good for you.

For interior decoration you should use as much white as possible, such as white bed sheets and pillow covers. As well, you should always carry a white handkerchief to wipe your hands and face when you feel tired or weak.

As a number 6 woman: You should use a lot of pink. On important occasions, you should wear a white dress for success.

Precious Stones: Diamonds are the favoured stone for you, because it is associated with Venus. In case you cannot afford a diamond, you can use white sapphire, white zircon, or white tourmaline.

- The diamond (minimum weight 1 carat) should be bought on a Friday between sunrise and 11 A.M. during the Shukla Paksha (the ascending moon cycle). Diamond may also be purchased when the nakshatra (constellation) is Bharani, Purva Phalguni, Purvakshad.
- It should be given to the jeweller and set in a ring in SILVER, WHITE GOLD or PLATINUM, with an open back, on a Friday.
- It should be picked up from the jeweller on a Friday and worn in RING FINGER, after proper cleansing and rituals, on a Friday between sunrise and 10.25 A.M during Pushya Nakshatra. Avoid wearing the ring during Rahukalam (10.30 am – 12 noon) on Friday.

The Ritual to be followed for the first time:

12	10	8

- Offer flowers, incense to the yantra and the Diamond and chant the following mantra 108 times:

"Aum Shum Shukraye Namah Aum"

(You could also chant Sri Suktam and Lakshmi Suktam.)

Tips for writing great reviews

Writing great reviews helps others discover the places that are just right for them. Here are a few tips:

- Be informative and insightful: Be specific and relevant to the place you’re reviewing, and describe what other visitors are likely to experience. Highlight what makes the place special, and try to share something novel and new. From signature dishes to secret sale racks, reviews should reveal the unique experiences that places offer.
- Keep it real: Be authentic. Review your own experience, and explain why you liked or disliked the place. Try to be as accurate as possible, and include both the positive and negative aspects of your visit.
- Be respectful: Not every experience with a place is going to be perfect. Sometimes you’ll want to share negative feedback. Even if you’re frustrated, make sure your criticism is constructive. Business owners often use feedback to improve their offerings.
- Reviews not General Commentary: At times certain locations may become the subject of larger public debate or conversation due to recent news coverage or current events. While we respect and value your opinion, Local Reviews are not meant for social or political commentary. We think there are other forums that are more suited to those kinds of conversations, like blogs or social networks. Please write about your firsthand experience with the place and not general commentary on the place in relation to recent news.
- Write with style: People will pay attention when you write thoughtful reviews. Keep them readable and avoid excessive capitalization or punctuation. Use good grammar, check your spelling, and avoid profanity.
Choose the right length - a paragraph is great. Be creative and have fun!
